He Is Prevailed Upon to Spend Another Day in Syracuse-Reception Given Him in His Hotel—Bob Fitzsimmens

Presents Him With an Iron Hoseshoe. SYRACUSE, Oct. 6 .- The success of the two speeches here yesterday of Francis Burton Harrison, Citizens' candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, was so great that the Democratic campaign managers prevalled upon him to spend another day in Syracuse before going on his way to Gloversville, where he is to talk to-morrow night. Chairman Cummins of the Onondaga county Democratic committee got reports from scores of his lieutenants yesterday that a great many votes had been fastened down in the Herrick and Harrison column as a result of the visit of Mr. Harrison to this city.

man Harrison was in Syracuse before the Saratoga convention in connection with the preliminary organization of the Democracy. Many of the men, especially the young men, who met him at that time were captured by his engaging and simple manners and have been talking about him ever since. Vesterday there was a general rush to get within handshaking distance of the candidate. His engagements were so many that not all

Mr. Cummins therefore arranged for a reception to-night at the Vates. It has developed at that reception that the revolt of the Republicans against the machine rule of the Governor-Chairman is much greater in volume and impetus than the Republican leaders conceded it to be. Men turned up at the reception who had never been seen in a Democratic gathering before They slipped through the rooms rapidly grabbed Mr. Harrison's hand and said with brief but unmistakable significance: "I'm a Republican, but I'm with you and Judge Herrick this year."

The requests of these men for the suppression of their names will be heeded by the newspapers. The Democratic press is glad enough to have their allegiance without subjecting them to the fire of the graft machine abuse batteries. The Odell papers are only too glad to refrain from advertising the defections from their ranks.

But up in his office the Hon. Francis Hendricks, Mr. Odell's pro-consul in the Onondaga province, received reports all day by 'phone and from the lips of his lieutenants. All day long Mr. Hendricks sat in his window and looked down into the rippling waters of the canal. The wavelets tried to flash back sympathy to him from their graft-scintillating undulations. Nevertheless, Mr. Hendricks grew gloomier and gleomier as the day wore on.

Former Postmaster - General Charles Emory Smith and other prominent Republicans held a great mass meeting at the Alhambra to-night. They aroused the greatest enthusiasm by their tributes to President Roosevelt and the glorious history of the Republican party. But never a voice was raised in defence of the Grocery man. The procession passing before Congressman Harrison in the Yates parlors, which had begun to wane, took on a new bustle and activity when the Alhambra meeting was over meeting was over.

Mr. Harrison spent the day making calls. Mr. Harrison spent the day making calls. Among the first of his visits was that to the Rev. H. N. Hyde, rector of Trinity parish, a Yale classmate. Among those on whom Mr. Harrison called were bishop. Patrick Ludden, former Charities Commissioner Dennis McCarthy, Charles J. Barnard and other prominent business men. Mr. Harrison lunched at the Vanderbilt Hotel and made earnest efforts to find former Mayor McGnire and State Committeeman. Haven

Not the least of Syracuse's pride in the past has been based on the efficiency of the Syracuse State Institution for Feeble Minded Children. Syracuse citizens shake their heads when you ask them about the institution to-day. Physicians, clergymen, all men who are concerned in the philanthrophic work of the State, speak of present conditions at the institution for the feeble minded as one of the foremost reasons why the Odell system of government must be put out of business.

The giving of the final voice in the management of the institution to incompetent Odell inspectors, who walk in management of the institution to incompetent Odell inspectors, who walk in ignorant of the real conditions and needs, and trample on the plans and regulations of the experienced superintendents; the taking away from all the local merchants of the trade to which they formerly had legitimate access—all these things have made the Odell machine unpopular with friends of the home for the feeble minded.

Incidentally, the Barbers' Union in Syracuse is after Candidate Higgins. Some

Mr. Higgins was the only one who paid any attention to the netice. He moved out, bag and baggage, with great spectacular effect, and the barbers were effusively grateful and fond of him for a few weeks. Then they discovered that he had quietly and unostentatiously slipped back to the comforts of the Vates and was talling people that tentatiously slipped back to the comforts of the Yates and was telling people that he hoped the barbers wouldn't notice it. But they did, and they are more vexed with Mr. Higgins than if he hadn't pretended to be so considerate of them in the first place. Mr. Harrison, when this pleasing incident was brought to his attention, congratulated himself that he is his own barber. The circumstance is regarded as a serious matter by some of the business. as a serious matter by some of the business

ALBANY, Oct. 6 .- Col. John S. McEwan of Albany to-day filed with the Secretary of State objections to the filing of the certificate of nomination of Presidential Electors and State candidates by the Social Democratic party. He holds that the right to the use of the name Democratic as a party title belongs to the Democratic party only, and that its employment by the Social Democrats is illegal and contrary to sec-tions 56 and 57 of the Election law of 1896. No date has yet been set by Secretary of State O'Brien for a hearing.

JUDGE PARKER DECLINES. Telegraphs to the Iroquels Club That He Can't Go to Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.-The Iroquois Club extended a pressing invitation to Judge Parker to come to Chicago about the middle of the month and the request was seconded by all of the big men of the party, but Judge Parker has declined. This telegram was received from New

THE REVOLT AGAINST ODELL. The Feeling Strong in Brooklyn as Well as Up the State.

Timothy L. Woodruff spent a couple of nours at Republican headquarters in Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon, in conference with the Assembly district leaders in regard to the progress of the campaign. The confidential information he received from all of them, without a single exception, proved conclusively that there is a general revolt in the party ranks all over the county against Odellism and the grocery ticket. foreshadowing a large plurality for Herrick and Harrison. Specific instances were given by some of the district leaders of the result of test votes at private gatherings of Republicans, all showing that Higgins was doomed to be mercilessly cut as a rebuke to the Governor-Chairman

In one case of this kind in which seven teen Republicans had met to arrange for a banner raising, all declared enthusiastically for Roosevelt, and only ten for Higgins. Mr. Woodruff, in his recent extended trips through the State, found that the uprising against Odellism is not confined to the metropolitan district, but he was fairly dumfounded at the extent of this feeling in his own political balliwick. The sole encouraging feature of the remarkable situation is the solid massing of the Republican hosts for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. Mr. Woodruff declined to make any comments on the gloomy reports he received in regard to the State ticket.

He said he was going to Washington on the midnight train and that he would have a talk with President Roosevelt to-day. He has received urgent requests to make a banner raising, all declared enthusiast a talk with President Roosevelt to-day. He has received urgent requests to make addresses in various parts of the State, but has found it necessary to decline most of them, realizing that there is ample work for him to do in Brooklyn. Mr. Woodruff pronounced the story that he was probably going to Washington in reference to the selection of a successor to the late Postmaster-General Payne as preposterous.

Mr. Woodruff, before his departure made, arrangements for the first big Roosevelt and Fairbanks rally in the campaign to be held to-night at the Clermont Avenue Rink. The speakers will be Senator Depew, Charles Emory Smith and A. E. Baxter. Mr. Woodruff expects to have Senator Fairbanks at

BAY STATE REPUBLICANS.

Fight Over Canadian Reciprocity Likely to Cause a Lively Time To-day.

BOSTON, Oct. 6.-Unless all signs fail to-morrow's Republican State convention will probably be the liveliest in years. Two questions are likely to cause trouble. is the contest for the nomination for State Treasurer and the other the Canadian reciprocity issue.

As regards the treasurership it looks now as if all the candidates in the field would go into the convention, and that it would take a formal ballot, and perhaps more than one, to nominate. There are now only four of these candidates, one having withdrawn. Great pressure has been and is likely to be brought to bear upon ex-Gov. Crane to use his influence to induce one of the western candidates to induce one of the western candidates to withdraw.

The fight of some Republicans to have a plank in the platform favoring Canadian reciprocity was renewed to-day. A meeting of the party leaders was held this afternoon at which the Chamber of Commerce people tried their best, to in-Commerce people tried their best to influence Senator Lodge to come to their way of thinking. How successful these efforts were could not be learned to-night, but at all events the platform was not given out in advance up to a late hour, an unusual circumstance.

The fight for a reciprocity plank satisfactory to all hands will probably be continued in the convention unless the leaders give in.

DEMOCRATIC CALL FOR CASH.

"Small Contributions" Stricken Out, and "Give What You Can" Is the Appeal. George Foster Peabody, the treasurer of the Democratic national committee. issued yesterday his second appeal for The original draft asked for small contributions and called upon the mass of Democratic voters to send in their dollars and half dollars. Since then the draft has been very much edited and it came out

been very much edited and it came out yesterday in this form:

There are about 14,000,000 legal voters in this country, and to intelligently present the issues of the campaign and the records of the candidates to this vast electorate requires a very large sum of money. The Democratic party has no industrial favorites from whom, either by promises or by threats it can draw campaign subscriptions, but must rely for necessary funds upon patriotic citizens who believe in a government of law under the Constitution honestly and economically administered. From all such citizens I request such contributions as they are able and willing to make, for which prompt personal acknowledgment will be sent.

BLACK SAYS IT ISN'T APATHY. But Comfortable Certainty That Makes Roosevelt Men Quiet.

Ex-Gov. Black was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night and speaking of the national situation he said: "I believe that not only will every Republican vote for Roosevelt but that a large percentage of masculine Democrats will also vote for him. The men who are responsible for the Republican wote in the localities where they are representative have a feeling of comfortable certainty about the election of President Roosevelt. My observation leads me to believe that the effect of this feeling is what warm nearly have construed. many people have construed as apathy I don't think that the New Yorker or any other city man can understand the deeply rooted impression among the people at large that in President Roosevelt and a Republican Congress their interests will be safely and conservatively guarded.

Saratoga County Democratic Ticket. SARATOGA, Oct. 6.-The Saratoga county Democratic convention this afternoon nominated for Member of Assembly Charles D. Gardner, a Democratic Justice of the Peace of the Republican town of Greenfield. It was stated of him on the floor o the convention that he is entitled to the honor by reason of inheritance, as his grandfather was a Democratic member of the Legislature almost 100 years ago, was understood that Herbert O. Bailey Mechanicsville was to be nominated, but he declined on the ground, as alleged, that "I promised my mother I would not accept."

Justice of the Peace Michael E. McTygue of Saratoga Springs was nominated for Dis-trict Attorney and Dr. George P. H. Taylor of Stillwater and Dr. G. Scott Towne of

HERRICK STIRS THEM ALL UP.

STATE HEADQUARTERS EN-LARGED AFTER HIS VISIT.

He Will Speak in Buffalo, Syraouse and Rochester Next Week and Here on Oct. 17-Will Not Minee Words in Displaying Fruits of Odellism in theState.

Judge D. Cady Herrick, the Citizens' candidate for Governor, had a busy day of it yesterday. Until late in the evening he was at the headquarters of the Democratic State committee, meeting callers and seeing the heads of the committee. Judge Herrick said that he will do everything the committee demands of him in the matter of campaigning, even to the extent of speaking two or three times a day.

"I am not as active as I was some years ago, when I made my last political campaign," he said, "but whatever the com mittee asks me to do I will try to carry out. If hard work will win success for the Democratic ticket, it will be no fault of mine if there should be failure."

Judge Herrick had conferences with hairman Cord Meyer, William S. Rodie, chief of the Bureau of Organization; Senator McCarren and other leaders of the State campaign, and asked their views as to the kind of campaign on his part which would be most effective in winning the State from the grocery administration.

Judge Herrick put new life into the State ampaign managers. He told them that with proper work and a vigorous campaign there was no doubt that the Democrats could carry their State ticket. The effect of his energy was apparent last evening in the State headquarters. More rooms were rented in the Hoffman House, anew literary bureau was established and a corps of stenographers and typewriters was put to work getting our reports for publication in the newspapers of the political conditions up the State, where independent Republicans for weeks past have not hesitated to declare that they will vote for Herrick rather than see the system prevailing at Albany continued.

As to Judge Herrick's itinerary, all that was decided restorder was the shelp that

As to Judge Herrick's itinerary, all that was decided yesterday was that he should speak in Buffalo on Oct. 12, in Syracuse on Oct. 13 and in Rochester on the 14th. On Oct. 17 he will speak in the Madison Square Garden and it is possible that he will also speak on the same night in Brooklyn. Other dates will be arranged to-day. Judge Herrick said that while he would not mince words in speaking of the contions which have existed in the government of the State under the rule of Odell, he would not make any personal attacks. he would not make any personal attacks on the Governor. At the same time, he said, he knew enough of how things had been run at Albany during the last two years to make some very interesting disclosures of Odellism and its system.

To inquirers who saled belt last vicht To inquirers who asked him last night what would be the principal subjects he would discuss in his campaign, Judge Herrick referred them to these paragraphs in his speech of acceptance:

his speech of acceptance:

To-day it is undoubtedly the fact that there is a widespread feeling in the State that many of its highest officials are recreash to their trusts seek that the leaders of the party in power freat the Government of the States as a commercial asset, and politics as a pursuit to be followed for private gain.

This feeling of distrust cannot be dispelled and the truth or falsity of the charges so injurious to the fair name and fame of our State cannot be determined until the books are opened and examined before the public, not by the men who have made and kept them, but by new accountants appointed by the people for that purpose.

The testimony of the witness summoned by the Governor, the learned Attorney-General of the State, indicates that there is something graver than mere wanton waste and extravagance in the expenditure of the people's money.

DESERTIONS FROM ODELL. Stanchfield Says Canal and Hospital Poll-

cles Have Allegated Many Republicans. John B. Stanchfield was in town vesterday and after a long conference with Cord Meyer and others who are looking after Judge Herrick's interests he had quite a lot to say of the Democratic prospects in

"There are a great many Republicans in the interior," he said, "who will support the Democratic State ticket, both on account of their hostility to the canal and by reason of the fact that they look upon the Republican State ticket as reflecting the extravagant Republican administration of the past ten years, and they are determined to make a change. In the strong Republican counties the Democrats have succeeded in persuading strong and capable men to accept nominations for local offices who will make a strenuous canvas, not with the expectation, in most instances, of success at the polls, but for the purpose of benethe Democratic State ticket, both on ac-men to accept nominations for local offices who will make a strenuous canvas, not with the expectation, in most instances, of success at the polls, but for the purpose of benefitting both the national and State tickets.

"The conduct of Gov. Odell in centralizing the control of the State hospitals in the Republican machine at Albany has made many Democratic converts. As a rule, all of these public institutions were officered by the representative citizens of the locality in which they were placed. These men served the State without pecuniary compensation and by long tenure cuniary compensation and by long tenure had become interested and enthusiastic had become interested and enthusiastic in the advancement and management of the institutions. They look upon their re-moval from place not only as a personal affront but as a blow at their integrity. All of the issues that made the guberna-torial election in 1902 so close are involved in this campaign and the Republicana in this campaign and the Republicans, who supported the Democratic nominee in 1902, with numerous recruits, will for similar reasons yield their political allegiance to Judge Herrick."

Thinks Virginia Could Be Made Republican Col. Campbell Slemp, the only Republican Congressman from Virginia, was in this city yesterday. He was elected two years ago by only a few hundred votes, but he said yesterday that there was so pronounced a leaning toward Roosevelt pronounced a leaning toward rooseveit that he expected to get a majority in his district of at least 3,000. He added: "If all the districts were as carefully organized as my own, three others, at least would send Republican Representatives to Congress and the State would be sufely anchored in the Republican column."

Taggart Busy With Indiana.

Chairman Taggart of the Democratic national committee has for several days been concentrating his attention on Indiana and he announced yesterday that William J. Bryan, between Oct. 12 and 20, would make twenty speeches in the State. David B. Hill will also speak in the State on Oct. 17, 18 and 19, while among the other speakers who will be heard in Indiana will be M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four railroad system, John W. Kern, Democratic candidate for Governor of Indiana and Gen. James B. Weaver.

Smith, Plainfield; for Coroner, Dr. A. H. Pierson, Roselle.

PEACE LETTER BY CARNEGIE. Simple Way to Abolish War-Wants Five Nations to Agree to It.

Boston, Oct. 6.-The following letter from Andrew Carnegie was read at the Peace Congress this afternoon:

From Andrew Carnegie was read at the Peace Congress this afternoon:

SRIBO CASTLE, DORNOCE, SUTHERLAND, Sept. 27, 1904.)

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT: I much regret missing the meeting of the International Peace Conference. Since we have at last in the Hague Tribunal a permanent high court for the settlement of international disputes, more and more my thoughts turn upon the next possible and necessary step forward to an agreement by certain Powers to prevent appeals to war by civilized nations.

Suppose, for instance, that Britain, France, Germany and America, with such other minor states as would certainly join them, were to take that position, prepared if defied, to enforce peaceful settlement, the first offender, if there ever were one, being rigorously dealt with, war would at one fell swoop be banished from the earth.

For such a resulf surely the people of these four countries would be willing to risk much. The risk, however, would be trifling. A strong combination would efface it altogether. I think this one simple plan most likely to commend itself to the intelligent masses.

A committee might be formed to consider this. If a body of prominent men of each nation agreed to unite in urging the cooperation of their respective countries in the movement, I think the idea would soon spread.

One cannot imagine for our republic a prouder position than that of pioneer in such a task—she who has been foremost in urging arbitration first also to urge five important Powers to submit their differences to the court of peace.

Powers to submit their differences to the court of peace.

Nor can I imagine more fitting apostles to urge this upon the Powers than our present Secretary of State, who is to honor you at the coming meeting in Boston, and our present President, who recently led the Powers to the Hugue. Having secured a permanent court for the settlement of international disputes, the time seems ripe for the same agencies to consider the one step further needed to complete the work. Very truly yours, always for peace,

That Great Britain and Austria-Hungary are on the point of concluding an gary are on the point of concluding an arbitration treaty was the welcome news brought by Baroness von Suttner to to-day's brought by Baroness von Suttner to to-day's session of the peace congress in Tremont Temple. Within the year Great Britain has concluded similiar treaties with France, Italy, Spain, Germany and Norway and Sweden. So the fact that a sixth treaty is contemplated is not surprising, but that it is upon the verge of consummation was a bit of genuine news.

An interesting suggestion was thatof William R. Cremer of England, who spoke in mild opposition to resolutions calling.

William R. Cremer of England, who spoke in mild opposition to resolutions calling for reference to The Hague tribunal of "all" differences arising under treaties. His point is that, especially where commercial treaties are concerned, disputes are likely to arise, important, to be sure, but too trifling to bring to the attention of the great court of nations. His idea is the establishment between each country, and all others with which it might be in treaty relations, of what might be called a court of first instance, to consider and determine minor difficulties, subject to appeal to the Hague court. It was deemed impossible to formulate this idea at the present congress, but the resolution was modified so as not to conflict with it, and the matter will probably be taken up at some matter will probably be taken up at some future conference.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.—Cardinal Gibbons

has written to the Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale of the Peace Congress, saying that if the Cardinal could have attended the Boston meeting he would have attended the Bos-ton meeting he would have deemed it his duty to say "a word of vindication of the-policy of Belgium in the Congo State." The Cardinal indorsed the work of Belgium in Africa unreservedly.

Mr. Kahn said that two announcements to allay the panic were issued by his firm, one soon after noon on May 9, to the effect that delivery of :Northern Pacific would not be enforced that day. JUDGE PARKER NOT TO STUMP

ANNOUNCEMENT THAT CLAMOR WILL NOT MOVE HIM ONE IOTA.

Also That Entreaty Will Not Budge Him and That the Campaign Managers Approve-The Vote of Montana if Not the Vote of Rhode Island Promised.

This official statement was issued yeserday by Chairman Taggart of the Democratic national committee:

"Shortly after his nomination Judge Farker set about the consideration of his course of action toward the conduct of the campaign. He consulted many men of large experience in such matters and made an examination of the course of every successful candidate. That done, he decided, as it was necessary for him to do, what his course should be. And he caused that decision to be made generally known. It was to the effect that he would not go upon the stump; that such speeches as he deemed it desirable to make should be made at Rosemount, following in that respect the McKinley precedent of 1896.

"That decision made and announced, he proceeded to work along the lines he had marked for himself. He believed then, as he does now, that he decided rightly, and no amount of entreatly will budge him. His record during all his previous life proves that clamor will not move him one iota. The incident is closed, and those in charge of the campaign fully approve of the determination of Judge Parker."

When Candidate Parker left the Hotel Seville early last evening to go to dinner with friends uptown he absolutely beamed. He had just heard that Montana was likely to go for him. The tip came from Senator William A. Clark and ex-Gov. Hauser and ex-Lieut-Gov. Spriggins of Montana. Mr. Spriggins had a telegram from home saying that the convention of the labor party in Montana had indorsed Parker and Davis. The receipt of this news was the cause of glorification in the Parker apartments. Mr. Hauser, who lives at the Fifth Avenue . Hauser, who lives at the Fifth Hotel most of the year, told Judge Parker that he could now count on Montana as a certainty. Montana has three electoral votes.

Similar tidings were borne by two gentlemen from Rhode Island, Mayor Higgins and his predecessor, J. J. Fitzgerald, both of Pawtucket. They told Judge Parker that everything looked grandly Democratic in Little Rhody and that Congressman Granger would be reelected.

Connecticut information, not quite so positive came at the hands of Mr. Swartout, former secretary of the Democratic State committee. He assured the candidate that committee. He assured the candidate that the Connecticut prospect was rosy.

A delegation of Hungarians, headed by Moritz Cukor, called on Judge Parker to say that they were for the Constitution forever and ever and that they would try to get all the Hun vote for Parker and Davis.

The Judge's other callers were August Belmont, Senator Gorman of Maryland, Congressman J. Wesley Gaines of Texas, Capt. Henry Holland of St. Lawrence county, Dr. C. P. Burke of Richmond, James K. Jones, William S. Rodie, Thomas F. Ryan and Max F. Ihmsen, a Hearst lieutenant.

Judge Parker overslept two hours yesterday morning, for he was tired by the Manhattan Club reception. He took a walk after luncheon. He will return to Esopus to-day.

FEWER PART TIMERS IN SCHOOL. Supt. Maxwell Offers Statistics to Show a Gradual Decrease. W. H. Maxwell, City Superintendent of Schools, made public yesterday a statement about the present condition of the school attendance, particularly in regard to the "part time" problem, which Mayor McClellan wants to end at once, according to plans he has sent to the Board of Education. The board is still sitting on the plans.

Supt. Maxwell has been considering the average returns of each school day since order.

Sept. 12. The register of the entire city for Sept 30 was 562,772, an increase of 29,251 over the same day last year. The average attendance for September, this year, was 295,002, an increase of 32,961 over September. last year. The registry of part time pupils on Sept. 30, this year, was 80,226, a decrease on Sept. 30, this year, was 80,226, a decrease of 10,051 from Sept. 30, last year. Supt. Maxwell regards this decrease as a hopeful sign, in view of the difficulty of getting new schools completed.

In addition, he says, there has been a decrease in part time pupils of 1,119 since the opening of the schools this year, and as soon as the school on the pier at the foot of East Third street can be opened and the

soon as the school on the pier at the foot of East Third street can be opened and the classrooms in some of the schools of Richmond and Brooklyn can be got ready, the part time register will be further reduced. He is confident that the next few weeks will see a reduction of 4,000 or 5,000 at least.

The total number of sittings in classrooms, as furnished by the principals, is 562,954. This includes all schools under the department He calls special attention to the fact that there has been an increase in the register in Brooklyn of 4,000 over the increase in Manhattan, which shows that there has been a considerable migration of people from lower Manhattan to the neighborhood of Brownsville and the Long Island end of the new Williamsburg Bridge.

SHERIFF ASKS FOR LESS. Flouts Precedent, and Startles the Board of Estimate.

The Board of Estimate had a shock yesterday. Sheriff Erlanger asked for a decreased appropriation. While the decrease was only $272 in an estimate of $130,492, the astonished Mayor asked: "Are you sure you have made no mis-
